Health Advisory: Stickney Recycling Fire

The Toledo-Lucas County Health Department along with multiple City and County Departments are working together on the current fire at Stickney Recycling on 4425 Creekside Ave. Toledo, OH 43612. This fire is generating a lot of smoke from construction and demolition debris. The smoke generated is similar to a structural fire, and at this time there is no immediate public health concern. Air quality monitoring of the site will be conducted. We will give further updates as needed.
